History of the Cantorum

The Jefferson City Cantorum was founded in 1967 by J. Patrick Healey and Grayson Peters. The original group was a mixed double quartet, but quickly grew.

The group has performed with the Jefferson City Symphony Orchestra and the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, as well as in the Cork International Choral and Dance Festival in Ireland. They have performed in the Governor's Mansion, on the steps of the Capitol during July Fourth celebrations, and for civic groups and conventions, as well as at other community events.

The Cantorum performs a variety of music, ranging from classical to popular. The group's shows have included "The Mikado," "Pirates of Penzance," traditional American music, patriotic and Broadway musical revues, and most recently, a review of songs from the 20th century.

J. Patrick Healey Scholarship Fund

In 2005, the Cantorum established the J. Patrick Healey Scholarship Fund in recognition of Mr. Healey's service of 38 years as the director of the Cantorum. The scholarship is awarded to a local high school student with outstanding participation in choral music.

Donations to the fund are welcomed. Please contact us through one of the methods listed on the back of this page.

Friends of Cantorum

The Cantorum provides an opportunity for residents of Jefferson City and the surrounding communities to share in the joy of music. Over the years, hundreds have shared their talents as singers, and thousands have heard the musical results of that sharing.

To help ensure that this tradition continues in this age of ever-increasing costs, we invite you to become a member of the Friends of Cantorum. As a friend of Cantorum, you will help supply financial support for our music library, equipment, costing, and auditorium rental fees.

All contributors' names will be listed in our concert programs. Contributors of $25 or more also will receive complimentary adult tickets to our Christmas and spring concerts.

Your donation is tax deductible.
